

DO NOT! change the New Jersey law as it relates to the Do Not Call list. The peace and quiet it has brought would take a huge step backwards and re-instate a heinous invasion of privacy during my at-home time, which is precious little these days.